DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Negro a Menace.

That the negro must be removed from the United States, or that in fewer than 50 years we will have to fight for existence and the preservation of the white home, was the leading point made by Thomas Dixon, jr., at a meeting held yesterday in the Baptist Church of the Epiphany, in New York, to discuss the subject, "What Shall We Do With the Negro?"

There was considerable excitement during the meeting, the cheers of the negro sympathizers being answered by cries from others. Toward the end of the meeting it was necessary to call in two policemen, Rev. M. C. Peters, pastor of the church, instructing them to arrest the next man who interrupted the proceedings.

Considerable feeling was shown by the negro ministers, who endeavored to combat the statements of Mr. Dixon and there were cries of "shame!" during his remarks.

"There is only one solution of the negro problem by which a race war within this century can be avoided, and that is by a peaceful and friendl colonization of the African," said Mr. Dixon. "To-day the negro is 4,000 years behind the white race, and he will always be so. For that space of time he occupied one of the richest and most fertile countries in the world, and he never improved it in any way; never dug up any of the minerals; never built a ship or a house, or even constructed a cart until the white man showed him how. We must remove the negro or we will have to fight him. He will not continue to submit to the injustice with which we treat him in the North and the South. The negro makes a magnificent fighting animal. When he smashes into your drawing room some day in the future with a repeating rifle in his hand you will make good on your protestations of absolute equality or he will know the reason why."

Fatal Accident to a Young Woman.

A dispatch from St. Augustine, Fla., says that as the result of reckless driving of an automobile, Miss Ethel Drew, of Boston, is dead, and her father, C. C. Drew, who is an invalid, may not survive the shock of his daughter's tragic death. Miss Drew went out Saturday afternoon for a horseback ride. While on St. George street an automobile being driven at high speed approached. Miss Drew's horse was high strung, and she waived her hand to the chauffeur to slow down. The chauffeur disregarded the young woman's warning signal, and approached at forty miles an hour. Just before the machine reached her, Miss Drew lost control of her horse and the animal whirled and bolted, throwing the young woman from the saddle, but her foot caught in the stirrup, and she was dragged several blocks. Miss Drew was removed to a hospital, where it was found that her skull was fractured and both arms and legs broken. She survived until yesterday. Miss Drew and her father were spending the season at St. Augustine for the latter's health. The tragic death of his daughter has unnerved Mr. Drew, and his condition is serious.

House Wrecked by Bomb.

A dynamite bomb hurled through a second-story window of the house of Paul Moszcynski, in Worcester, Mass., at an early hour yesterday morning, exploded and tore away the rear part of the house blowing out the floors and rear wall. Twenty-two persons were asleep in the house. The wife of Daniel C. Bootk, who was ill, was rendered insane by the explosion. Miss Valeska Burakvicz, aged twenty-two, who was asleep in the room adjoining where the explosion took place, was buried under debris, but not seriously hurt. The cap of the bomb went through the wall of the house and at 40 Richland street, and fell 150 feet away and was found in a picture frame in the home of William J. Ryland. The force of the explosion shook the whole section of the city. The police are looking for Frank Czybonowski and his wife, formerly part owners of the building, from possession of which they were evicted by mortgage proceedings. A second bomb, eight inches long and made of two-and-a-half-inch gas pipe, was found in the yard.

From this terrible affliction I was re cued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders."

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Insane Policeman.

Charles Harwood, a former policeman of Peoria, Ill., thought to be insane, entered police headquarters yesterday afternoon and with a revolver held up Chief of Police Kennedy and seven officers for fifteen minutes, while he cursed them and threatened to shoot the entire crowd. He snapped a cartridge, but it did not discharge. He then backed out of the station and escaped. An hour later Harwood appeared near his home in Bigelow street, and entered the home of Mrs. Montgomery, whom he knocked down with the but of a revolver. He then entered his own house, taking a shotgun and a revolver, and barricaded himself. Up to a late hour last night he had defied arrest by a squad of policemen, who surrounded the house. Saturday night Harwood compelled his wife to disrobe, and then he drove her naked into the street Yesterday morning he attempted to take the life of his children.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken — dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 29, 1906.

THE TRIAL of Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, at New York, on the libel charge brought by Justice Deuel, of the Special Sessions Court, has resulted in laying bare the amazing methods by which Editor Mann, of Town Topics, and his coterie for years past have played successfully upon the vanities of wealthy men whose families belong to the so-called "smart set," using society gossip in the columns of his paper as a hold-up weapon. All this was brought out by counsel for the defendant through admissions of Colonel Mann and Justice Deuel on cross-examination, and later through the testimony of persons who had been approached, and also of Mann's former employes. District Attorney Jerome, who conducted the prosecution in person, virtually admitted the existence of the blackmailing schemes. O. H. P. Belmont told how Mann had tried to get a loan on Town Topics stock, after which unfavorable paragraphs began to appear. Col. Mann himself then told how, when "he needed money and was poor," several years ago he had borrowed large sums of money aggregating nearly $200,000 from rich men like Whitney, Vanderbilt, Keene, Morgan and others who were liable to criticism in his paper, but without any actual security whatsoever. It was brought out that Mann had kept an immune list of prominent people who were not to be criticised, and on this were most of those who had loaned him money or who had subscribed $1,500 or more for Fads and Fancies. One witness produced letters he had received from Justice Deuel urging a subscription to the book, and another told how Mann had offered to stop unpleasant paragraphs if witnesses's steamship company would advertise. Editor Hapgood testified that he had written exactly what he meant about Justice Deuel and Town Topics, and Robert J. Collier, one of the owners of the paper, said that he accepted full responsibility for the editorial. In summing up for the defense, Lawyer Sheppard said Deuel was a corrupt judge, Mann, a blackmailer, and Town Topics a huge conspiracy to exact tribute from the rich. District Attorney Jerome said he would have written as much or more. And the worse feature of the whole business is that a large number of publications, scattered throughout the country, flourish, for a time at least, by means of the same methods adopted by Col. Mann.

JUSTICE, long delayed, was dealt out Saturday in New York, when a jury in the United States Circuit Court found guilty of criminal negligence one of the several responsible contributors to the General Slocum disaster, Capt. Schaick, of that death trap excursion boat, was convicted on the charge that he had failed to maintain the fire drills required by law and was sentenced by Judge Thomas to ten years' imprisonment at hard labor. The laws in New York are enforced. If such an accident had happened on the Potomac no one would have been punished. If the steamboat captains and railroad conductors and engineers knew that they would have to answer for accidents there would be fewer of them.

ALREADY come rumors from Richmond that the Legislature "faces a prospect of either extending the session or neglecting a considerable amount of business. Then let the "business," such as it is, go over, but by no means let there be an extended session. Should the Legislature adjourn today nobody would be hurt, but every day it is in session increases the likelihood that many be injured. There are enough laws already on the statute books to last for a hundred years and the more that are added, the worse off is the State. It is to be regretted that the new constitution did not provide for quadrennial instead of biennial sessions of the Legislature.

THERE is a movement on foot among certain members of the State legislature to increase their own pay from four to eight dollars a day. This attempted salary grab should be frowned down, and it is noticeable that the leaders in the movement are generally men who could not earn four dollars a day at any other avocation they might follow. These men knew what salary they were to get when they offered themselves for election and if they are dissatisfied now, then let them resign.

THE large number of witnesses examined in the Police Court last week in the murder case may all have been as innocent as doves of any knowledge of the murder, but many who heard or read the evidence are constrained to believe that if the perjury laws were rigidly enforced a large percentage of the witnesses would soon be serving time.

NEXT Friday, February 2d, will be Ground Hog Day, when the ground hog is supposed to come out of his hole. But many believe that he did not go in this winter; he certainly need not have done so.

JAPAN'S actual outlay for the war with Russia was $495,000,000 for the army and $90,000,000 for the navy. No wonder Japan accepted the Russian peace terms.

Washington, Jan. 29.

Several members of the House committee on industrial arts and expositions and several other members of Congress left on the Norfolk steamer last night for Norfolk, where they will spend today as the guests of Representative Maynard, inspecting the site of the proposed Ter-Centenary Exposition.

The joint committee from the Virginia Legislature named to notify United States Senator Thomas S. Martin of his re-election which left Richmond at 9:20 o'clock last night, did not reach here till after 2 o'clock this morning having been delayed by the train. The committee was composed of the following members: Senators Shackelford, Echols, Tavenner and Delegates Williams, Lane, Pitts, Clements and Cockran. The notification was made at Senator Martin's home, No. 2111 S street, he still being too much indisposed to go to the New Willard, where it was intended that the ceremony should take place. The notification speech was made by Mr. Lane to which Senator Martin briefly responded. The whole affair was rather informal, but all in good taste. The legislators will return to Richmond this evening. Senator Martin is rapidly improving and hopes to be out again during the week.

The U. S. Supreme Court today granted a stay of the mandate in the case of James Howard, of Kentucky, convicted of the murder of Gov. Goebel. On January 8 last the Court rendered a decision adverse to Howard, and the effect of the mandate issued February 2, according to rules of the court, would be to make operative the sentence of the trial court which has been affirmed by the Kentucky court of appeals. The motion for the stay was presented by J. W. Blackburn, jr., who explained that Howard's counsel wished to present a motion for a rehearing. After a brief recess Chief Justice Fuller granted a stay of 30 days in the return of the mandate.

"Carnation Day" was observed at the Capital, many private citizens, office holders and visitors wearing President McKinley's favorite flower. At the White House, the various departments and the agricultural greenhouses many visitors were presented with carnations. At the public schools the teachers spoke to their pupils about the murdered President and directed brief exercises of patriotic song in his memory. The florists and street fakirs did a rushing business, carnations selling more by many thousands upon any other previous anniversary of the day.

Justice Gould, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, today overruled the demurrers in the cases against George W. Beavers, former superintendent of salaries and allowances in the Postoffice Department; George E. Green, former state senator in New York, and Willard D. Doremus, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with contracts with the Postoffice Department. It is held by the court that the indictments properly alleged a conspiracy to defraud, and that the objection that some of the indictments do not set out criminal intent on the part of Beavers is not well founded because in them the common law offense of misconduct in office is charged. Following this ruling of the court, counsel for the defendants moved that they be discharged. This motion was also overruled. The trial of Green and Doremus will go on Feb. 12.

The Secretary of War sent to Congress today drafts of eleven proposed bills for army legislation. These bills, which were prepared by the general staff, are regarded by officers of the army as extremely important as effecting the efficiency of the military establishment.

Slemp is now in the position of the man who will be d—d if he does and be d—d if he doesn't.

At Mt. Vernon today the members of the Imperial Chinese Commission to investigate industrial conditions in this country paid homage to Washington. The preservation of the home of George Washington and the accounts of the many pilgrimages to the tomb of the first President impressed themselves deeply on the commissioners and the members of their suite. The trip down the Potomac was made on the government dispatch boat Dolphin. The Postoffice Department and the big government printing office were also visited during the day.

Fugitive from Justice.

Attorney General Anderson has made a motion before the Court of Appeals to summarily dismiss the appeal in the case of Ewell Rose, of Front Royal, who was recently convicted in Judge Harrison's court of the charge of selling liquor in Warren county, a prohibition community, fined $2,160 and sentenced to 60 days in jail. Rose, the appellant, is a fugitive from justice in his own cause and has never submitted to the judgment of the court to which his appeal was taken.

The case is said to be without precedent in the Virginia courts. On the pretext that he was to secure bail, Rose left the courtroom at Front Royal immediately after the trial and has not been seen since. He is now said to be engaged in the whisky business at Hagerstown, Md. An order has just been issued by the Court of Appeals providing that if the fugitive is not in the hands of the officers of the law by February 14 next the writ of error and supersedeas granted in his case will be null and void.

To establish an epileptic colony on the land of the Western State Hospital in Amherst county.

The impression is becoming quite general in London that the Morocco conference will end in smoke. It is even doubtful if those who promoted it expected any tangible results.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Death of King Christian.

Copenhagen, Jan. 29.—King Christian IX. died suddenly at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

King Christian's health has been failing for some time. The funeral will probably bring several ruling monarchs to Copenhagen, as well as many members of the various royal families. The ceremonies will be as impressive as those in connection with the burial of Queen Victoria.

King Christain IX. was born on April 8, 1818. He was the fourth son of the late Duke Wilhelm of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glucksburg, and of Princess Louise of Hesse Cassel. He was appointed to the succession to the crown of Denmark by the treaty of London, May 8, 1852, and by the Danish law of succession of July 21, 1853. He succeeded to the throne on the death of King Frederick VII. November 1, 1863. He was married to Queen Louise on May 26, 1842. By the death of King Christian, the heir apparent, Prince Frederick will become King of Denmark. He was born June 3, 1843 and married Princess Louise, daughter of King Carl XV. of Sweden and Norway, on July 28, 1869. The aged King was greatly beloved by his people, and there was no sovereign in the world who was closer to his people than he.

Victory Over Fire of 49 Years.

Lansford, Pa., Jan. 29.—The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company has won its battle against the fire which has been raging for 49 years in the old Greenwood mines, and the rich veins of coal upon which the fire has been feeding will soon be available for working. In 1857 some deer hunters carelessly allowed embers from their camp-fire to fall into an air hole leading to the mine and a body of gas was ignited. Since that time many attempts have been made to extinguish the flames, and a number of lives have been lost, but all the work of reclamation was in vain until two years ago, when the engineers adopted a plan of forcing a mixture of water and culm into bore holes leading to the mine. The culm eventually smothered the greater part of the fire and it has now become possible to flood the entire working.

International Jewish Congress.

Brussels, Jan. 29.—The international Jewish Congress assembled in this city this morning, with delegates from all parts of the world from Argentina to New Zealand. Other questions which will come up will be the organization of a permanent international committee to deal with all Russian Jewish matters; how the Jews can obtain equal rights in Russia, and the causes and the consequences of the recent massacres.

They saved the bodies of two persons who were to have been buried from the establishment. The origin of the fire is not known. It was rumored that all of the living and the dead had been cremated, and the scenes about the establishment were heart rending. Water caused the principal damage.

The defendant is a working woman named Jeanne Weber, 35 years old, who is charged with killing three children and attempting to murder a fourth all within a space of five weeks. The circumstances under which the children were killed are so mysterious, however, that it has been impossible to establish the guilt of the woman. The woman is believed to be possessed of a mania for child murder.

Funeral of Gen. Wheeler.

An imposing military pageant passing across Brooklyn Bridge, brief services at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in Fifth avenue and an escort across the North river ferry to Jersey City, where the body was put on a train to be taken to Washington for interment in the National Cemetery at Arlington, marked the funeral in this city today of Brig.-Gen. Joseph Wheeler. The body was wrapped in the flags under which he had served with almost equal vigor and distinction—the Stars and Bars of the Confederate States and the Stars and Stripes. A riderless horse, with boots reversed in the stirrups, and a cavalry sword dangling from the saddle, was led just behind the caisson.

A large concourse of people assembled in the church where brief services were conducted by Rev. Ernest Stires, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix. The honorary pallbearers were—Col. J. J. Astor, R. T. Wilson, J. Pierpoint Morgan, Fitch Smith, Dr. John Wyeth, John McKesson, S. R. Bertron, Dr. William M. Polk, Commander Parker, United States navy; Archer Huntington, Gen. J. H. Wilson, General Kent, Senator William A. Clark of Montana; Charles S. Fairchild, Gen. O. O. Howard, United States army, (retired); Gen. Stuart L. Woodford, Dr. R. Ogden Doremus and Dr. Parrius.

Following the church services the body was escorted to Jersey City, where it was put on board a train of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which left for Washington shortly after 4 o'clock. After services there today the interment was made in Arlington, the last military honors being paid at the grave.

A delegation from R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate veterans from this city attended the funeral.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—With all the honors due his rank, Major General Joseph Wheeler was buried at Arlington today. His remains were followed from the capital to this sleeping place of the dead among the Virginia hills by men who had fought under him in two wars, and beneath two flags. Behind the caisson on which the body was borne marched veterans of the Confederate army and soldiers of the Spanish-American war.

All the morning the remains lay in state in St. John's Episcopal Church and were viewed by an almost continual stream of government officials, army and navy officers and plain citizens. The body arrived last night from New York accompanied by General Wheeler's four children: Capt Joseph Wheeler, Miss Lucy Wheeler, Miss Carrie Wheeler and Mrs. W. H. Harris.

From the station it was escorted to the church by a detail of 10 members of the United Spanish American War Veterans in full uniform under command of Major Hodgson. Throughout the night they kept vigil beside the coffin, being relieved this morning by a similar detail of soldiers from the regular army. At 10 o'clock the church was thrown open for the viewing of the remains. Across the top of the casket was laid the general's dress uniform, hat and sword, and about it were arranged the hundred or more beautiful floral tributes, among them being a great wreath from the White House conservatories. One of the most striking pieces was that sent by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, a representation of the Stars and Bars in roses and bearing the letters "U. D. C." The funeral services at two o'clock were attended by President Roosevelt, several members of the Cabinet and a large concourse of army and navy officers. They were conducted by Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Ernest A. Stires, of the St. Thomas Episcopal Church of New York.

The body was borne from the Church to the flag-draped caisson waiting without by six non-commissioned officers of the U. S. army passing between two lines of Confederate veterans. The official escort to the cemetary consisted of a battalion of engineers, a squadron of cavalry with bands and a battery of field artillery. A brief service from the prescribed military ritual was held at the grave, followed by the firing of three volleys and the sounding of taps. Among the organizations which participated in the funeral was Camp A, Wheeler's Confeddrate cavalry, composed of men who fought under the general in the civil war. They came to Washington from Atlanta, in a special train, provided by Captain Joseph Wheeler, jr., arriving last night.

Death of Father O'Keefe.

Rev. Matthew O'Keefe, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church of the Immaculate, at Towson, Md., died yesterday. He was seventy-eight years old and a native of Waterford, Ireland.

The oldest priest in the diocese, Father O'Keefe was the last surviving brigade chaplain of the Confederate army, he having been chaplain of Mahone's brigade, of the army of Northern Virginia, and a close personal friend of Gen. Robert E. Lee and Jefferson Davis.

Father O'Keefe made himself famous throughout the south by his work during the outbreak of yellow fever at Norfolk and Portsmouth in 1855, and in 1869 won the red ribbon of the Legion of Honor by his attendance upon the officers and crew of a fever-stricken French frigate that put in at Hampton Roads. He is said to have died practically penniless, having devoted his large fortune to church works.

In the spring following the visit of the fever-stricken French frigate to Norfolk, Father O'Keefe received through Hon. Hamilton Fish, the Secretary of State, a magnificient gold watch and chain from the Emperor Napoleon, with a letter expressing his gratitude for Father O'Keefe's services. The value of the watch and chain is not less than $500.

At the out outbreak of the civil war Father O'Keefe applied to Bishop McGill for permission to take up arms in defense of the South. This permission was denied by the bishop, who enjoined Father O'Keefe under his sacerdotal vows not to bear arms, but stipulated that if Norfolk was attacked he could exercise the natural right of self-defense in defending his home city.

Thereupon Father O'Keefe went to Richmond and offered to lead a night attack of 500 picked men on the federal camp at Point Lookout. President Davis consented, but stipulated that a Confederate colonel must accompany the expedition. The officer arrived in Norfolk, but became intoxicated, and when he became sober again heavy re-enforcements had arrived at the camp, and, much to Father O'Keefe's disappointment, the expedition had to be abandoned.

When Jefferson Davis was a prisoner at Fort Monroe he was visited daily by Father O'Keefe, who consoled the leader of the lost cause during the bitter hours that he was imprisoned. He was invited by the widow of Mr. Davis to accompany the body of the latter to Richmond to be entombed.

THE CURTIN MURDER CASE.

As has been stated in the Gazette, Harrie Meeks, Herbert Foster, Leroy Beach, jr., and James Gorman, who had been in custody in connection with the mysterious murder of George R. Curtin, were dismissed in the Police Court Saturday evening.

Previous to this action Mrs. Curtin, widow of the murdered man, had been on the stand. Among other things she said that on Friday night, December 22, her husband did not leave the house. He painted a sideboard that night and she varnished it Saturday morning. She said when he disappeared he wore a new suit of clothes which he had purchased Saturday morning.

Several other parties who had been summoned as witnesses testified, but their evidence brought out no new facts.

After the evidence had been closed Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, addressed the court. He reviewed the evidence from the time Curtin was seen in company with Foster buying a Christmas tree, and traced him to the Tontine Hotel, where he was with Foster and Meeks. Next, he said, he found them at the house of Mamie Wood. Meeks, he added, left first, not to go home, however, for he was later seen in a crowd engaging in an altercation with Leroy Beach. The trio were later seen endeavoring to enter a number of houses on Lee street, but as the inmates objected to the presence of Curtin the accused would not leave him. A man wearing a light overcoat was seen standing over Curtin as he was sitting on Eva Baker's steps at 2 o'clock. The speaker concluded by saying that he had thus placed Curtin in the hands of Meeks and Foster and the unknown man wearing the light overcoat, and that no accounting for the latter had been made. The court was asked to hold the defendants for the action of the grand jury.

Justice Caton replied that after listening carefully to the evidence furnished by more than sixty witnesses he did not see anything which connected the accused with the killing of Curtin, and he could not conscientiously hold them on the charge mentioned. His verdict was followed by applause from a part of the large number of spectators.

Shortly after the police justice had rendered his decision Mr. Brent stated that the investigation into the Curtin murder had just begun. Mr. Brent said: "During this preliminary investigation we got much closer to the criminals than appears on the surface, and we will have them behind the bars before we go through. I have no idea of abandoning the search for George Curtin's murderers because of this little setback."

May Hillman Company Tonight.

May Hillman will be in this city tonight and will be very welcome. Amusement lovers admire Miss Hillman greatly and as she has lost none of her attractiveness the same old crowds as of yore will surely flock to see her during her week's engagement at the Opera House. Miss Hillman is this season surrounded by a fine company and her plays are of the order that all classes of amusement lovers will admire and enjoy. The opening one on Monday night will be the splendid drama "Children of Satan," a stirring four-act play full of human interest, clever comedy and pathos. It should be remembered that specialties of the most pleasing nature will be introduced between the acts at every performance. This attraction is guaranteed by Manager Harper, and the theatre-going public should not fail to bestow liberal patronage upon the company.

Evangelistic Meetings.

The evangelistic meeting at the First Baptist Church last night was exceedingly interesting. The congregation filled the large auditorium, including the gallery. There were five professions of faith, and all of them was received for baptism. Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell, D. D., of the First Baptist Church of Norfolk, will join the pastor tonight, and will preach every night during the week. Dr. Blackwell is a striking personality and a distinguished preacher. In personal appearance he resembles W. T. Bryan, and his style of speaking is not unlike that popular statesman. The prayer and song service will begin at 7:30. Preaching at 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Much Ado About Nothing.

The report circulated about two weeks ago to the effect that the remains of an infant had been found under the floor of an unoccupied house on Commerce street appears to have been baseless. Justice Caton examined a number of witnesses in the Police Court this morning, none whom said they saw anything resembling the body of an infant. The hole in the floor was about the size of a teacup, and from all that could be learned the sleeve of an undershirt in which something putrid had been rolled had been pushed through the hole and lime subsequently added.

Raid on Gamblers.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon Officers Gill, Beach and Sherwood made a descent upon a small frame house near the east end of the tunnel where some young men were engaged in gambling. When the officers appeared a stampede followed and one of the inmates jumped from a second-story window and narrowly escaped falling on Officer Gill. Four of the youths were conducted to the station house. They were brought before the Police Court this morning and one of the accused was fined $5. The others were assessed $1 each.

The Proposed Park.

Plans are all completed for the new pleasure park, which will next summer be opened on the grounds recently purchased by the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon railway in Alexandria county, near Four-mile-run. The work of grading the new park will be commenced at once. It will be lighted by many hundreds of electric lights arranged in fancy designs, and will be equipped with pleasure and amusement devices of all kinds.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel Runyon, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with contempt of court, was fined $5.

Two young colored men and two colored women arrested by Officers Smith and Bettis charged with improper conduct, were fined $5 each.

Fannie Day, Eliza Jackson, Richard Price and William Day, all colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson, Lyles and Garvey charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

A white boy, arrested by Officers Beach, Gill and Sherwood charged with gambling, was fined $5. Three others, arrested by the same officers charged with a similar offense, were fined $1 each.

Lawrence Bennett, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with vagrancy, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Alice Price, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with improper conduct, was dismissed.

Two youths, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with assault were fined $5 each.

The Hunting Season.

Lieutenant Smith of the police force has received the following letter from Senator Machen in reference to the game laws:

Richmond, Jan. 24, 1906.

James Smith, esq., Lieutenant Police, Alexandria, Va.

My Dear Sir—I have received the petition signed by you and a number of other prominent gentlemen of Alexandria city requesting me to oppose the closing of the hunting season. I agree fully with the views expressed in your petition and shall do my best to prevent the passage of the bill by the Senate should it pass the House, which I think it very doubtful. As it is not possible for me to write personally to all of these gentlemen who signed the petition, I will ask you to be kind enough to tell as many as you see that I favor their recommendation.

Very truly yours,
LEWIS H. MACHEN.

Personal.

The Junior Card Club was delightfully entertained Saturday evening by Miss Kitty Barrett at the residence of Miss Hattie Douglas on Cameron street.

Miss May Fair and Miss Elizabeth Fair, of Warrenton, are visiting Miss Lucy Douglass at her home on Cameron street.

Mr. Greda A. Kengla, of Washington, and Miss Mary A. Williams, of this city, were quietly married on Saturday morning by Rev. H. J. Cutler at St. Mary's Church.

Mrs. J. E. Norris is very ill at her residence on south St. Asaph street.

Miss Jessie Armstrong has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

An Increase in Dogs.

People whose business carries them to all parts of the city have for some time had their attention directed to the increasing number of dogs they encounter. It is safe to say that many of the curs are unlicensed. They prowl about the city, invading alleys and yards, causing apprehension to women and children. A gentleman living in the southwestern portion of the city yesterday counted nineteen canines on Alfred street, between Wolfe and Wilkes.

A dog, supposed to be mad, was killed this morning near the corner of Queen and Payne streets by Mr. W. H. Peck.

Married in Bed.

In the matter of John P. Hunter, formerly of this city, now held in Norfolk on the charge of bigamy, it was stated in Saturday's Gazette's that Rev. J. A. Jeffers, of this city, had sent a letter to Norfolk stating that he "thinks he recalls having performed the ceremony." Mr. Jeffers says he has a distinct recollection of the marriage of Hunter and Miss Langley. He says the bride was sick in bed at the time of the wedding and that Hunter sat in a chair beside the bed during the ceremony.

The Coming Parade.

Osceola Tribe of Red Men of this city will participate in the Washington birthday celebration on the 22d proximo, and invitations have been sent other tribes in Washington, Baltimore and several Virginia cities to enter the parade on that occasion. Newspaper men of Washington and Maryland will also be invited to visit Alexandria on the 22d.

Colored Men Assaulted.

An old and decrepid colored man was cruelly assaulted by a number of boys on west Duke street yesterday. One of the youths threw a rock which struck the old man on the head. Another elderly colored man was assailed by some youngsters and he was compelled to seek refuge in the yard of a resident of the neighborhood.

A slight fire occurred at the Old Dominion Glass Works yesterday. The flames were discovered by some boys who were passing and they were subdued without sounding an alarm.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 29.

SENATE.

Carnations were generally worn by Senators today.

During the routine business Mr. Penrose opposed the request of Mr. Elkins, that his committee on interstate commerce be discharged from further consideration of the employees' liability bill, and that it be referred to the committee on judiciary. He charged that the committee on judiciary had already been discharged from its consideration.

"If it is the desire of the committee on interstate commerce, to avoid responsibility," he declared, "it is time the Senate should pause."

Mr. Elkins said he had no knowledge of the bill ever having been in the hands of the judiciary committee.

The matter went over for investigation.

The Pennsylvania Railroad was under attack today. During a discussion growing out of the reading of a petition from the Red Rock Fuel Company, of Fairmount, W. Va., charging gross discrimination against it by the Baltimore and Ohio, Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, announced that he would at a later date introduce a resolution calling upon the Department of Justice for an inquiry into the alleged commuty of interest between the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio Railway Companies.

During a discussion in the Senate today, over the Tillman resolution calling for an investigation into the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion act Mr. Dobois intimated that the Japanse were back of the Chinese boycott.

The Tillman resolution, modified to eliminate all reference to Wu Ting Fang, the former Chinese Minister, and providing for an opinion in conducting a thorough investigation into the enforcement of the exclusion act, was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

HOUSE.

"Carnation Day," the anniversary of the birthday of the late President McKinley, was not generally observed in the House today, although many of the older members wore the late President's favorite flower.

The House committee on elections No. 1 reported on the case of Representative Anthony Michalek, of Chicago, whose expulsion from the House is asked on the alleged ground that he is not a citizen of the United States. A resolution was presented and adopted asking for authority to proceed to take testimony, either by the committee, a subcommittee, or a commissioner, at such times and places as the committee may designate.

The friends of the Pennsylvania Railroad on the floor of the House were caught napping this afternoon when Mr. Gillespie opened his fight on the railroad combination for which the Pennsylvania is supposed to stand. He called up for immediate consideration, as a privileged matter, his resolution calling on the President to inform the House what information, if any, he has to the effect that the Pennsylvania, Norfolk & Western, Baltimore & Ohio, Cheaspeake & Ohio, the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington and the Northern Central are a combination in restraint of trade. Without debate the resolution was adopted.

It was then that Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, realized the character of the resolution which had been passed, and he immediately moved that the vote be reconsidered, explaining that the resolution of inquiry should be directed to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and not to the President. Gillespie moved to lay Dalzell's motion on the table, and on this a yea and nay vote was ordered.

Mr. Dalzell was deserted by a big number of leading republicans, who supported the Gillespie motion, which was adopted by a vote of 122 to 95, the announcement of the vote being received with applause.

The Gillespie resolution was introduced in the House soon after the Pennsylvania Railroad's "anti-pass" order was made public, and the votes of some of the members are being attributed to their resentment against this order. It is believed that the President will send the House all the information on the subject of the alleged combination which may be in the possession of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Affairs in Russia.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Prominent members of the Russian colony here have received information from home to the effect that Premier Witte has established a black cabinet, or secret organization, to watch all members of the Imperial Douma or assembly. The purpose is to ascertain with whom the Douma members associate and how reliable they can be accounted on political matters from the standpoint of the government. The real purpose of the secret organization, it is asserted, is to establish a system of espionage over the imperial legislature and the reform parties are indignant that such a step has been taken

ATTENTION IS CALLED to a portion of an ordinance in effect April 11, 1902, which reads as follows:

Section 2. Be it further ordained, that ashes and house waste as hereinbefore defined, and when unmixed with other matter, shall be removed from dwellings, stores, offices, hotels and churches at the expense of the City Council and under the direction of the Committee on Streets and the City Engineer; provided that owners or occupants of the premises shall put the ashes and house waste in tight, strong boxes, barrels or receptacles which can be handled by one man (the capacity of said boxes, barrels or receptacles not to exceed thirty (30) gallons each or the size of an ordinary flour barrel) and place the same in the most accessible place on the premises and not exceeding thirty (30) feet from the street or alley.

Attention is also called to a portion of an ordinance passed at the same time, which reads as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to throw, deposit, scatter or leave, or cause to be thrown, deposited, scattered or left, any ashes, house waste, rubbish, litter, vegetable matter, garbage, paper or refuse of any kind, or any dead animal or putrescible matter of any sort, or to leave ash or house waste receptacles, boxes or barrel on any street, sidewalk, alley or parking in this city.

Section 2. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one or more than five dollars, which fine shall be collected as other fines are collected and paid into the City Treasury.

Persons who have complied with the terms of these ordinances are entitled to satisfactory services as to the removal of ashes, &c. Failure on the part of the ash collectors to make proper and satisfactory collections should be reported promptly to the City Engineer by telephone or mail. Undoubtedly some complaints are well founded, but some are caused by failure on the part of citizens to comply with the terms of the above ordinances to which their attention has possibly not been called.

It is the desire of the City Engineer and Committee on Streets to give the best possible service with the comparatively small sum appropriated for this purpose, and co operation rather than criticism will do much to work producing good results.

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 29, 1906.

Letter From Richmond.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Jan. 27, 1906.

Official society in the capital city is anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the reception to be tendered Gov-elect Swanson by Lieut. Gov-elect J. Taylor Ellison on the evening of February 1st., to which practically all officialdom in the city have been invited.

Chief among the bills presented to the legislature during the past week are the following: A bill to pay clerks and judges of election $2 instead of $1 per day, which, after a hard fight, passed the House by a scant majority. Messrs. Caton, Lion and Withers led the fight for the bill, against a strong opposition. The republicans voted solidly against the measure. A bill to allow cities and counties to fill vacancies of county and city offices, occasioned by death, removal from county or city etc., not now provided for in the charter. Many cities and counties have been filling these offices without authority of law. The power by the bill to elect is vested in the supervisors in counties and councils in cities. A bill has been introduced by Mr. Caton making rolling stock of roads a subject of local taxation. A bill has been favorably reported requiring the issuance of separate bills for poll taxes. A bill to empower councils in cities and supervisors in counties to offer rewards for arrest and conviction for attempt to commit crime. A bill has been introduced where cities desire to extend limits embracing territory not in the county in which the city is situated, requiring an election to be held in said territory or county, and the consent by a majority vote of the residents of said county shall be obtained before annexation. The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bott'e free.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas common "remedies" made with mercury merely drive them out and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real cure, not a delusion. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
